FOREWORD

We, the class of 1961, in an effort to make a monument to our four years at Paulsboro High School, have recorded past events and achievements to forever unite our graduating class in this yearbook.

Reviewing the progress made in the last decade of our country, we have made several changes in the yearbook, deviating from the usual manner of writing the PEGASUS.

We would like to acknowledge our gratefulness to the aid and encouragement given by faculty, principal, superintendent, and friends in broadening our education and our lives.

Presentation of Yearbook

Anne and Adelaide St.
Petery, Mr. Bodnarik.

MR. RICHARD RIDINGER

DEDICATION

As the hands of time move onward and the pages of the book of years are being filled, we look back on the memories that can never be forgotten. In these pleasant memories dwells a man who has done much for the development of Paulsboro High School.

Such a man is Mr. Richard Ridinger.

Mr. Ridinger began his career as a teacher of U.S. History I. He has also served as a guidance teacher and as assistant wrestling coach. He is now the head football coach and, this year, became an assistant principal.

We, the graduating class of 1961, appreciatively dedicate this, the twenty-fourth edition of the Pegasus to Mr. Richard Ridinger.

MR. JOHN BODNARIK

ADMINISTRATION

The Senior Class of 1961 would like to extend a vote of thanks to the Administrative Body of Paulsboro High—Mr. Bodnarik, the superintendent and Mr. Creamer, the principal—for the fine job they did in performing their many executive duties this year.

We also would like to express our thanks to the two vice principals, Mr. Ridinger, who has been very efficient in attendance and guidance work, and Mr. Pszwaro, who was coordinator of student activities.

In Memoriam

MR. ROBERT SUTHERLAND

This note is written to commemorate one of the wisest and most beloved teachers P.H.S. has ever had the honor to claim. Mr. Robert Sutherland taught physics, a subject which he loved and truly understood. "Big Daddy," as his students fondly nicknamed him, had a vivid imagination and a riotous sense of humor that won him friends everywhere. He could joke in class, making it more interesting, while still getting across the subject. Both students and faculty loved and respected him.

All our lives must someday end, and in an instant there can be left a great emptiness, but life must go on. May we all remember this man for his honorable qualities and loving nature rather than let his memory fade.

Seniors

Four Years

In Review

In September, 1957, the class of 1961 entered Paulsboro High School. The first few days were the hardest; but after we had adapted ourselves to the routine, we felt as though we really belonged.

The first social event of the year, the Freshman-Sophomore Reception, helped us to meet many friends. When we began to know each other better, we elected class officers: James Matteo, president; Jean Carfagno, vice-president; Connie Di Bona, secretary; and Joyce Burke, treasurer.

Toward the end of the year we entertained the rest of the student body when we presented our freshman assembly, based on "Shock Theater."

As sophomores we were given more opportunities to take part in extracurricular activities. We were also ready to start working toward our Washington trip by selling subscriptions in the magazine drive.

Shortly after the magazine drive we chose our officers: Sheryl Swed, president; Robert Todd, vice-president; Connie DiBona, secretary; and Lorraine Riccobono, treasurer.

Finally, we were upperclassmen with more activities as well as increased responsibilities. The results of our junior election were: Glenn Fish, president; Joan Reichert, vice-president; Lorraine Riccobono, secretary; and Connie DiBona, treasurer.

Shortly before Christmas we received our long-awaited class rings, symbols of our years at Paulsboro High.

Our junior assembly, a minstrel show, provided hilarious entertainment for the student body. We also made a special effort to make our junior dance, "Primrose Lane," enjoyable to all.

Thirteen of the outstanding members of our class were selected as members of the National Honor Society on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

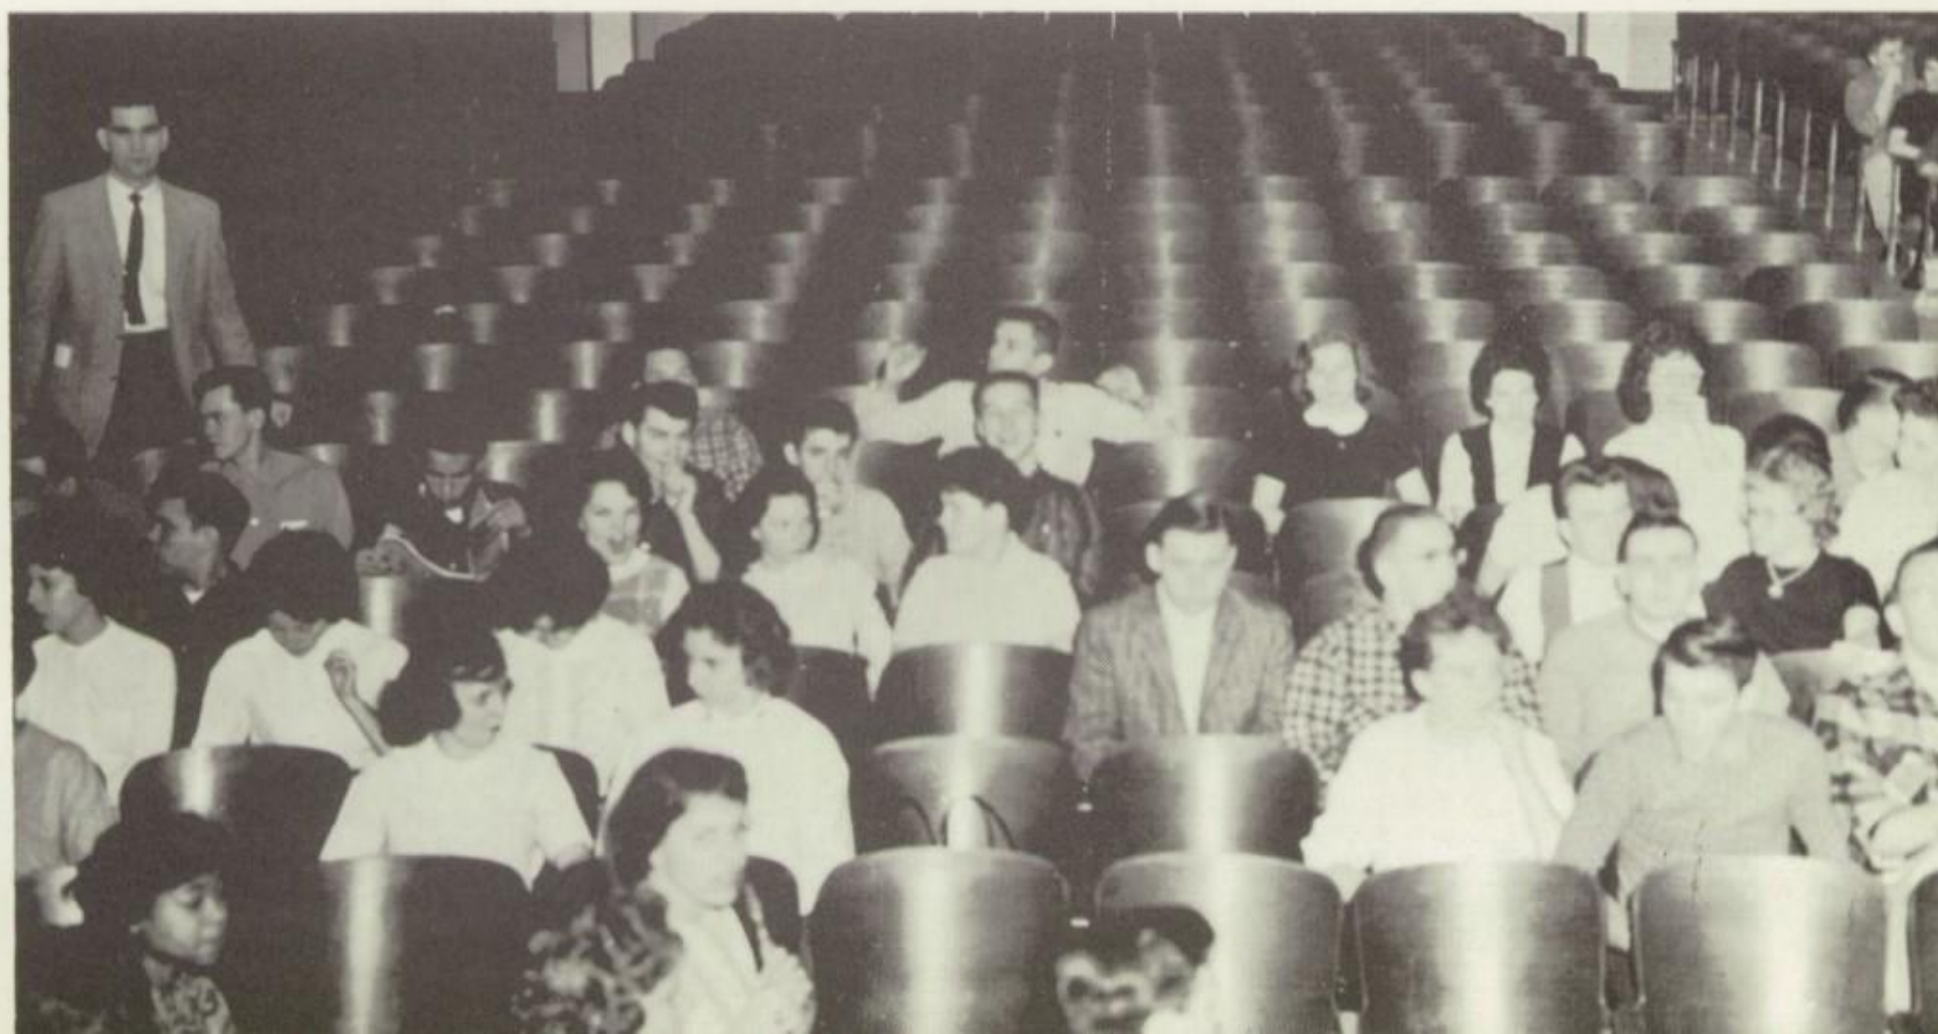

The greatest responsibility of our junior year was planning and presenting the Prom. We transformed the gym into a Parisian sidewalk café, overlooking the River Seine.

It hardly seemed possible that only one more year remained. Many of the key positions in the school were filled by capable seniors. The campaigns for class officers were very exciting. Wilbur Gattuso was elected president; James Matteo, vice-president; Jean Carfagno, secretary; and Joan Reichert, treasurer.

Selling Christmas cards enabled many of us to earn the price of our Washington trip. We'll never forget those memorable three days!

As honored guests of the junior class we attended the Junior-Senior Prom, the biggest formal event of the year.

Our days as high school students have come to an end. We will all go our separate ways, but each of us will always remember our four wonderful years at P. H. S.

JUNIORS

In September, 1958, the present Junior Class entered Paulsboro High School. John Wydenowski was elected president with Wilma Harris as vice-president. Pete Camerota was class secretary and Ted Miller was treasurer.

Our major contribution as freshmen was the presentation of the freshman assembly. It was a satire on "This Is Your Life" entitled "This Your Life Is."

The next year as sophomores our officers were capable. Ted Miller was president, and Pat Riccobono was vice-president. Jane Dellaratta was secretary and Barbara Morgan was treasurer.

Our big project of the year was the annual magazine drive. The profits from this drive go toward our Washington trip. The amount of magazines sold totaled over $5,000.

It was also our responsibility as sophomores to plan and execute the Freshmen-Sophomore Reception which provides the freshmen with an opportunity to get acquainted with their classmates. Talent from both the Freshmen and Sophomore Classes was presented.

With the purchase of our class rings, we became full-fledged juniors. After an exciting campaign the results of the Junior Class election were announced. Art Montgomery was the president. His assistant was Wilma Harris. Barbara Morgan held the office of secretary, while Ethel Hudson handled the money.

The junior assembly involved an evening at an exclusive restaurant in Philadelphia—Spider Kelly's. Through this assembly, the many versatile talents of the Class of 1962 were displayed.

Student Council Representatives

This year's Sophomore Class, as others in the past, welcomed the new Freshman class by entertaining them with a floor show, a dance, and refreshments. Everyone who attended enjoyed themselves while getting acquainted.

In early October, the sophomores undertook their annual task of selling magazines to raise money for their senior trip. Miss Vonada and Mr. Johnson aided in organizing the class's efforts. Although not as great a success as last year's drive, they raised the impressive sum of $4,500. Gail Hartman won first prize and selected a bowling ball. Second prize of fifteen dollars was won by Peggy Trimble. Joan Driver came in third and received ten dollars.

This year the class is guided by president, Dennis Huntley; vice-president, Terry McGlincey; secretary, Gloria Smith; and treasurer, Arthur Ebert.

The Class of '63 excels in all it does and is really going to go places.

FRESHMEN

Since the Freshman Class entered the exciting realm of high school, they have proven capable and cooperative in the school curriculum, in the field of sports, and in other school functions and activities. They have successfully begun the tedious but rewarding task of paving the inspiring road leading to higher education, companionship, and achievement of their utmost ideas and ideals.

The Freshman Class chose Mark Montemore, president; Louise Kamman, vice-president; Rita DiNicola, secretary; and Thomas Cundey, treasurer, to fill the honored positions as their class officers.

As the Freshman Class continues its remaining fruitful years of high school, they shall surely be aware of the time-honored and cherished goal of graduating as a class of great prestige and promise.

Organizations

Anne and Adelaide St. Petery
Co-Editors

Pegasus Literary Staff

The Pegasus Literary Staff, composed of a representative group of members of the senior class, are those who make up our annual yearbook. Our co-editors, Anne and Adelaide St. Petery, always had some of the staff busy for there was so much to be done to make our yearbook great. Every Monday morning found the staff in room 106 busily engaged in writing and proofreading. New ideas were numerous.

The staff is very grateful to Mrs. Crouch, our literary advisor, for her help in making our yearbook a great success.

STAFF

FIRST ROW: C. Nielsen, A. Shenkus, B. Jackson, A. St. Petery, A. St. Petery, S. Schmerling, C. Hanel.

SECOND ROW: J. Carfagno, B. Jaep, E. Byford, D. Brennan, D. Simek, P. Bittick.

JOAN HETHCOTE
Best Salesman

Pegasus Business Staff

The Pegasus Business Staff works hard during the year selling subscriptions to the Pegasus to underclassmen. The members also solicit advertisements from town businessmen.

This year Joan Hethcote, who sold twenty subscriptions, was the highest salesman.

The Business Staff has contributed much toward making the Pegasus a success.

PAULSENTINEL LITERARY STAFF

FIRST ROW: E. Dalbow, A. Shenkus, B. Jackson, A. St. Petery, W. Harris, J. Lilly, C. Nielsen.

SECOND ROW: Mr. Healy, P. Pfeiffer, G. Smith, J. Hurley, M. Heil, D. Weber, M. Wersits, F. Urban.

PAULSENTINEL

During the year, the students anxiously awaited the days when the Paulsentinel was distributed. The papers were sent to the homerooms, and extra copies were always on sale.

The business staff directed by Miss Carlin had Alverna Field as editor. The expense of the paper was met by selling advertisements and by other projects.

Mr. Healy directed the literary staff. Its editor was Anne St. Petery.

The paper was composed of feature articles, personal interviews, gossip, sports pages, and advertisements. An effort was made to include as many pictures as possible.

The paper reflected the high ideals and the good spirit of Paulsboro High School.

OFFICERS

The greatest scholastic achievement that one can attain at Paulsboro High School is to be selected as a member of the National Honor Society.

After two years of hard work, the juniors who have acquired an average of 85 or better are nominated for the society. The teachers have the responsibility of selecting the members on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Should a person not be chosen in his junior year, he may still be elected in his senior year if he maintains his average.

The induction service consists of a beautiful candle-light ceremony, a pledge, and speeches on the National Honor Society code.

BAND

The band certainly deserves praise for the work they have done this year. In addition to their regular duties of playing for assemblies and marching for football games, they took part in several parades. This group won second place in the Memorial Day Parade in Camden, and received one hundred dollars.

The band has increased in size and has been adding new instruments—bassoon, alto clarinet, pedal tympani. It is under the able direction of Mr. Schoepske.

STUDENT COUNCIL

OFFICERS

SEATED: J. Mercantino, G. Fish, S. Swed.

STANDING: W. Harris, F. Carfagno.

The Student Council, a representative organization dedicated to service, employs the principles of democratic government to enable the students to enjoy an active part in the school's functions.

In the fall, the council sold programs at the football games, and during the year sold bookcovers, folios and "Red Raider" car emblems. At Christmas time, the Council sponsored the homeroom decoration contest, and in February, they sponsored the annual Valentine Dance, appropriately named "Hearts and Flowers".

Membership in the council is by elected homeroom representatives. The officers are elected by the student body after having been selected by a nominating committee. Council officers for this year were: Glenn Fish, president; Sheryl Swed, vice-president; Joann Mercantino, recording secretary; and Frank Carfagno, treasurer. Mr. Ridinger served as our able leader.

The Paulsboro Raiders, under the able direction of head coach, Richard Ridinger, came through with a winning season. Our team received honors for being runner up in the South Jersey Group III, and tied for second place in the Colonial Conference. Some of our boys received individual recognition. Robert MacMillan, center, was on first team All Colonial Conference, South Jersey Group III, All South Jersey, and second team All State Group III. Wilbur Gattuso, back, was on the first team All Colonial Conference, and received honorable mention for South Jersey Group III.

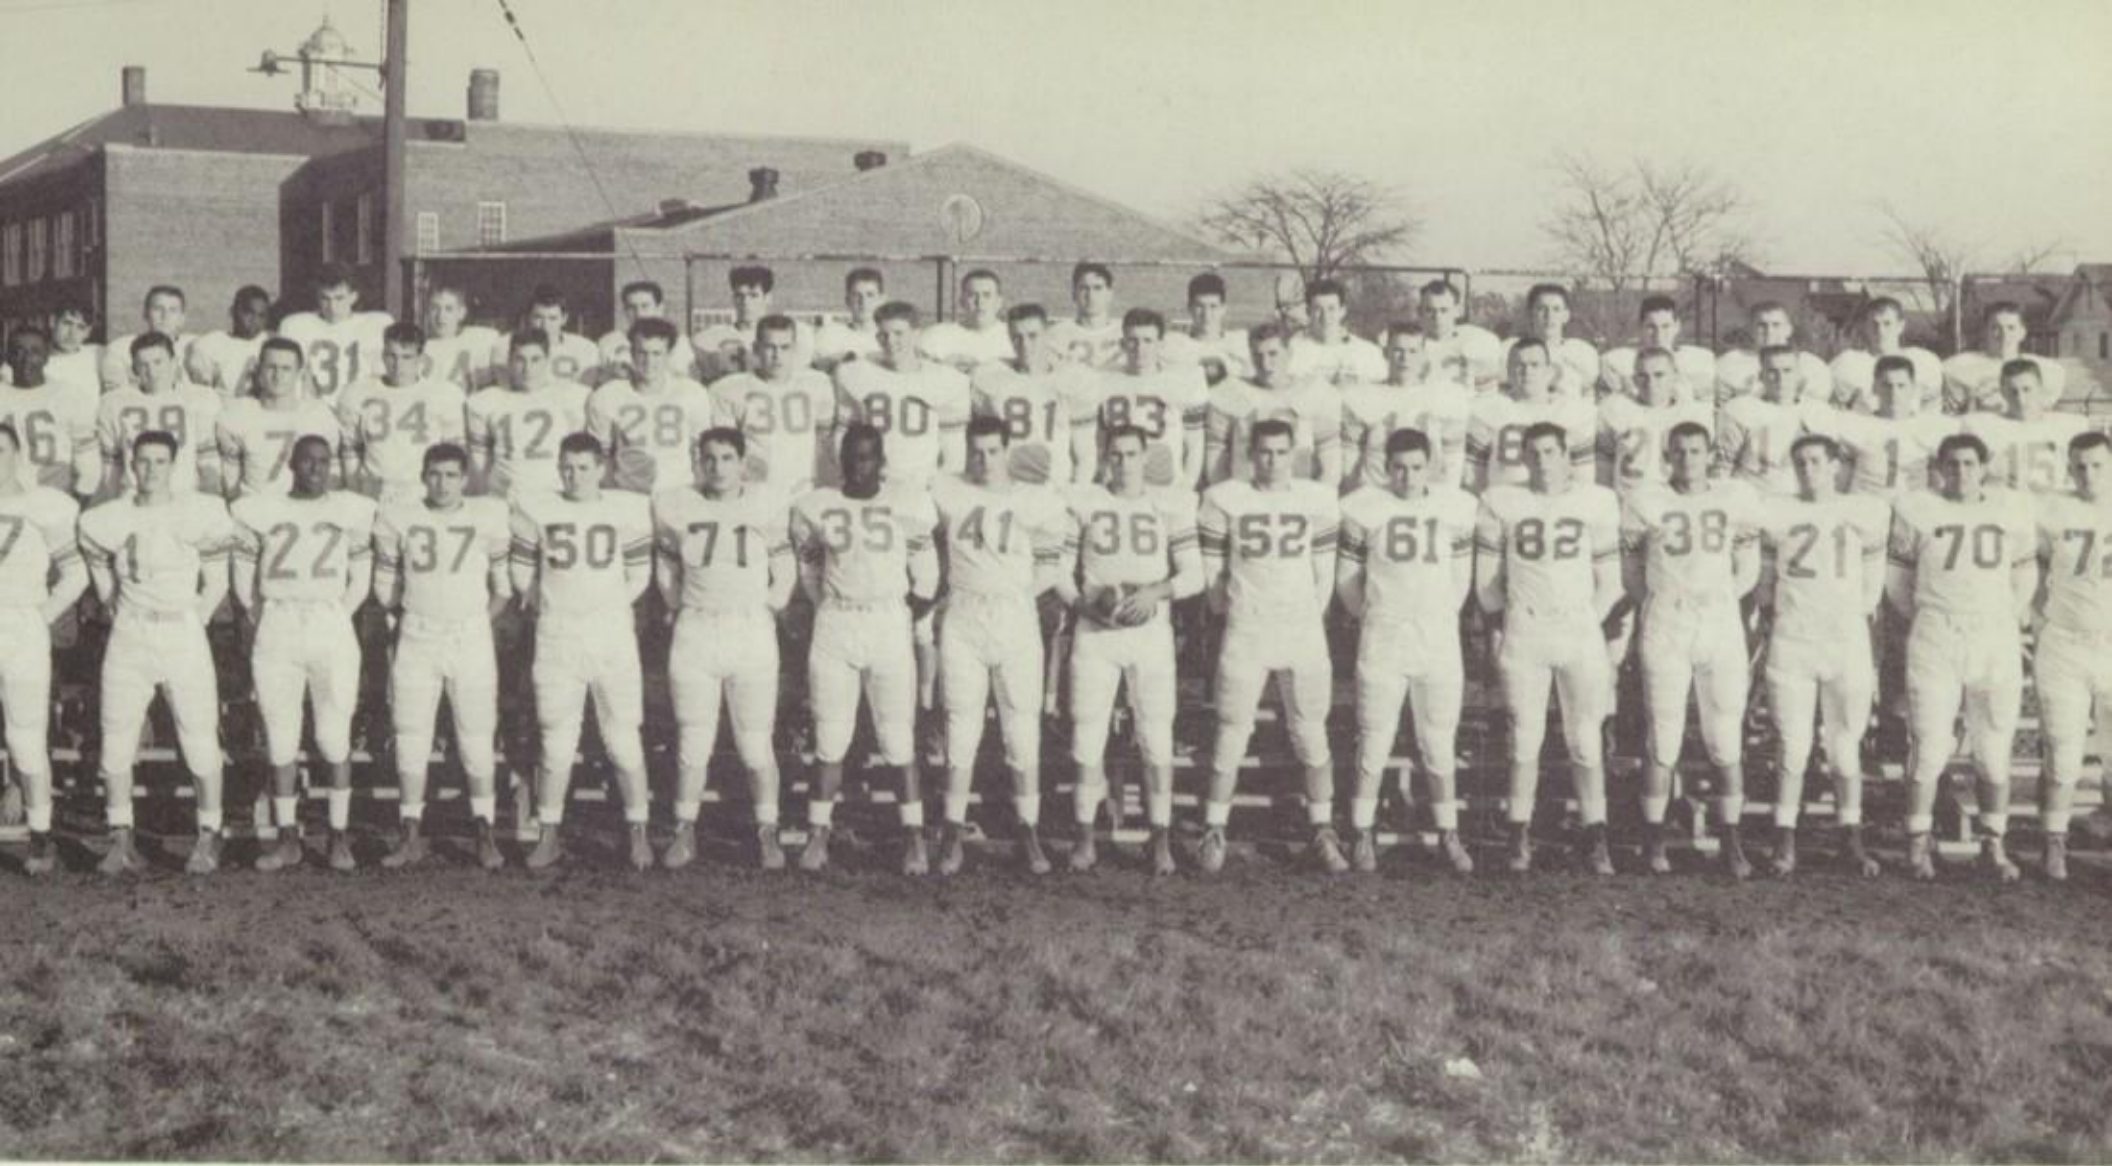

Receiving honorable mention in South Jersey Group III also were Anthony Barber, tackle; Robert Baylor, back; Charles Niessner, guard; Gene Smalley, back; and Glenn Spears, end. The "Big Red" came through with a record of six wins and two losses. It took the great class of 1961 to defeat Woodbury 21-7 and to beat Glassboro for the first time since 1956. Our co-captains were Anthony Barber and Wilbur Gattuso.
